

Frequently Asked Questions about the Reduction of Federally Funded Extended UI Benefits

Beginning Sunday, September 2, 2012, federally extended unemployment insurance benefits will be reduced by 10 weeks.

Why is this happening?

This reduction is a result of the federal legislation, which reauthorized the federally extended benefits earlier this year.

What specifically is happening?

The maximum number of weeks unemployed Hoosiers may be eligible to receive benefits will be reduced from 73 to 63 beginning Sunday, September 2, 2012.

What happens if I begin collecting federally extended benefits before Sunday, September 2, 2012?

Your maximum number of weeks will only be reduced by 4 weeks, (from 73 to 69.)

What happens if I begin collecting the federally extended benefits after Sunday, September 2, 2012?

If you are eligible to begin collecting federally extended benefits your maximum number of weeks will be reduced from 73 to 63.

How do I find out if I've already begun collecting federally extended benefits?

If you have already begun collecting federally extended benefits, underneath the heading "Claims" on your Uplink homepage "EEUC" will be listed under "Program." The "Start Date" to the right details when you began collecting federally extended benefits.